Meeting Notes

Our August Meeting at Barb's featured Bandsaw setup & maintenance, and changing Planer blades, by Paul. If you missed the meeting, you missed a great learning session!

Several members brought some of their work to display alongside the cake & cookies!

Other items of interest:

- October 8th Show in Camden County
- Don't forget that our club has extra copies of the AAW magazine, and also the English magazine is available on a LOAN basis.
- New AAW Guest Membership Program
- PLEASE send photos of your work to share with others! Send them to Herb for inclusion in the newsletters, and for our web site. (Email to Herb@HerbMiles.com, or text to 912-223-9204)

President's Message

Our First Friday show had to be canceled because of the weather, but we have rescheduled for November First Friday (Nov. 4). Plenty of time for you to get some work ready for Christmas shoppers!

Here is a project you may want to get involved with:

Beads of Courage - Barb talked about this at the picnic and our last meeting. According to the Low Country Turners Newsletter, they delivered approx 50 boxes to the Memorial Hospital in Savannah.

Jim's New Talent

Jim's Very First!

Jim did these oil paintings after watching a series of videos by Bob Ross, learning his “wet on wet” techniques.

The first one is 16 x 20,
and he did it in only 2-1/2 to 3 hours!
